English intermediate course B1 for teachers	The Intermediate level course intends to broaden vocabulary with exercises and leisure activities, to review and introduce new grammar topics in order to raise the level and accuracy of speaking, writing and to increase confidence. Practice will be incorporated in every class. Videos and extra activities will also be included to step out of the routine. The goal is to be able to participate in a variety of conversations to develop both fluency and accuracy.	María Eugenia Noriega	Presencial	Martes y Jueves de 10:00 a 12:00	02-06-2016	30-06-2016
Speaking through stories	English Course designed to support teachers to improve their speaking skills, develop their fluency, enrich their vocabulary, polish sentence structures and become more confident while communicating. Modern and old stories from around the world are used as an excuse to motivate participants to speak about universal topics such as misunderstandings, popular beliefs, human kind, etc. The course aims to bring together the best quality and engaging stories that give more than one viewpoint (perspective) on a problem, published by a variety of writers from Europe, America and Asia.
